

Alliance
International University

Program listings under the international program

For degree study areas not listed and subjects not listed students are requested to contact the International Program Director for available subjects and alternative study areas admin@aiuglobal.com

School of Finance and Financial Management

Procurement, Logistics and Facility Management

Master of Science in Logistics and or Procurement

The program is either researched based with the completion of a comprehensive and extensive thesis or a combination of coursework and a thesis based on a particular topic of the student's choice and can also be only coursework based. For more information kindly contact the International program Director.

For study areas or subjects not listed kindly contact the International Program Director.

First year

Accounting for Managers, Supply Chain Management, Strategic Management, Quantitative Methods and Decision Making, Transport Management and Logistics Planning, Transportation Network Analysis, Operations Management, Procurement Management, Business Logistics and Information Technology,

Second year

Service Management, Inventory Management, Organization and Resource Management, Strategic Marketing International Business and Risk Management, Business Strategy and Procurement Competence,